II.1.4) Short description

Northumbrian Water Limited (NWL), which includes Essex & Suffolk Water (ESW) are reviewing the supply arrangements for their on-going requirements for Furniture.

NWL are looking to set up a series of contracts for office furniture, to commence on the 1 March 2023 for three years, with the option to extend for a further two years.

The contracts will include day to day requirements, such as standard desks, standard office chairs, stackable meeting room chairs, various sized tables for meeting rooms, filing cabinets, screens, lockers and mess room furniture for depots (this is not an exhaustive list).

In addition, we have a number of areas within NWL that also require furniture: Restaurants, Receptions and Breakout Areas.

A number of refurbishments have been carried out over the last few years across our sites, some of which are still on-going. It is envisaged over the life of these contracts there may be other refurbishments to be completed. Any upgrade projects may also include an element of design work.

The requirement is being tendered in 2 Lots.
