Objective criteria for choosing the limited number of candidates: Objective criteria for choosing the limited number of candidates: The Authority intends to restrict the number of tenderers up to a maximum of six. The Authority will assess the suitability of potential providers to be invited to tender using the Pre-Qualification Questionnaire (PQQ) that interested providers must complete to be considered. The PQQ will be assessed and, if necessary, the number of potential providers reduced to a maximum of up to six, using the following assessment criteria, all of which must be met.

1. Potential providers must score a "PASS" against all questions throughout the questionnaire that are scored as "PASS/FAIL".
2. Potential providers must demonstrate satisfactory (PASS) evidence against questions SQ-6.1 to 6.3 (serial numbers 1.13.1 to 1.13.3) in Part 1 Form E - Technical and Professional Ability.

All Suppliers who satisfy the above assessment criteria will be ranked using the total weighted score allocated against the scored questions in [the Technical Questionnaire] and the Authority will invite up to six providers with the highest total weighted score. If there are a number of providers with the same weighted score, the Authority reserves the right to invite more than the maximum number of six suppliers. In the event that more than one supplier is ranked in sixth place on the above basis, the Authority reserves the right to award sixth place on the basis of the highest score in Form F section 2.4 (Technical Questions) only.

Failure to achieve a minimum pass mark of 60 of 100 for the overall DPQQ score may result in elimination from the process.
