The Girls Learning Trust, a multi-academy trust in the London Borough of Sutton, is now seeking to appoint a Lettings Management Provider for our three schools, Carshalton High School for Girls, Nonsuch High School for Girls and Wallington High schools for Girls.

More details about our three schools can be found here:

<http://www.nonsuchschool.org/321/welcome-from-the-ceo>

Background

Lettings at our three schools are currently separately managed, to alleviate the administrative burden on our office based and premises teams we would like to amalgamate all of these systems and have all three schools fully managed by an external provider. We would like to work with a company who will manage all lettings across the Trust, with whom we can transfer responsibility to when the school is out of hours.

We are looking to appoint a lettings company that has experience managing lettings for schools and is able to take over the responsibility of all aspects of the lettings including marketing, invoicing, communication and booking processes with hirers. The winning contract must be able to offer a service on site whilst the lettings are in situ, we are unable to accept tenders that can only offer online bookings platforms.
