Section VI. Complementary information

VI.3) Additional information

At the Developer Awareness Event the Contracting Authority will share its development objectives, explain the work it is currently doing in preparation for delivery of the scheme and what it is seeking from a potential development partner. Presentations will be given by senior Council officers and members in relation to this important riverside gateway development opportunity in the heart of Great Yarmouth, allocated for wholesale regeneration in the adopted Local Plan. Having succeeded in securing £20 million Levelling Up Funding, there is significant momentum building to deliver this North Quay development opportunity site, which is located close to the Rail Station and historic Market Place – the latter currently undergoing significant transformation with a new Covered Market, public realm and a new Learning Hub/University Campus. To register for the Developer Awareness Event and for further details about the proposed scheme please contact Alexandra Clark at aclark@lsh.co.uk or on 07714 160105
