Expressions of Interest for Halesowen and/or Stourbridge Town Halls. Dudley Council welcomes expressions of interest from Entertainment organisations or Community groups who can demonstrate appropriate experience to take over the management of these popular entertainment / community venues. The Council wishes to see the venues remain as valued local community assets that continue to host a range of events. The successful operator(s) will be able to demonstrate a successful commercial background, preferably within the field of venue management. For clarity, organisations or groups may apply to take on the future management of either or both venues.
