II.1.4) Short description

Procurement procedure discontinued:

Following evaluation of original tender returns, the OC has come to the conclusion that it did not specify its Scope of Works in sufficient detail and therefore will exercise its right to cancel this tender exercise and commence a new procurement for the requirements as soon as possible. The procurement will be re-advertised in the Find a Tender Service (FTS).

This will allow the OC to update its Scope of Works so that it is more clearly defined including its Technical requirements. It will also allow for volumes to be updated which have changed since the original process started.

All potential suppliers who tendered originally will be given another opportunity to tender for the contract should they wish to do.
