Dr Challoner's High School are here to provide the best possible education for girls. They are passionate about the breadth of aspiration and opportunity, and ensure that their girls are empowered with the skills, habits and attributes needed to thrive in the 21st Century and to contribute significantly to the world.

A leading selective grammar school for girls, Challoner's High has a strong tradition of academic excellence, consistently placing in the top 50 in state school examination league tables. Judged by Ofsted as 'Outstanding' in 2012, the subsequently became only the ninth school in the country to gain the Exceptional Schools Award in July 2014. Nearly all of their students choose to go to university, with most going to Russell Group institutions, including Oxford and Cambridge.
