Support will be delivered by the Service Provider in partnership with community groups who wish to be actively involved in the resettlement of refugees into their area. As such, it is a requirement that the Service Provider is an expert in the field of resettlement covering both refugees and beneficiaries of the schemes listed above. The Service Provider will offer training and advice to community groups and the voluntary sector, supporting the Council to safeguard vulnerable individuals, cultivate cultural awareness and develop the understanding of the befriender role.

The Service Provider will provide the above support across all resettlement years of each arrival's stay in the UK, depending on individual need and available funding. This can range from 3 to 5 years depending on the scheme.

The Service Provider will provide flexible staffing appropriate to caseload. Maintain ability to operate at full capacity supporting the Council in delivering services for up to 45 cases, at times where the global climate requires this.
