value includes potential extension and is the maximum value. The total minimum value is GBP£13,914,455 The services to which this procurement relates fall within Chapter 3 Section 7 and Schedule 3 of PCR2015. As such, the procurement is being run as a process akin to the open procedure. However, the contracting authority does not intend to hold itself bound by any regulations except for those under Chapter 3 section 7 of PCR2015 for light touch services. Please note that the Transfer of Undertaking (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006 may apply and applicants should seek their own legal advice on this subject. The Contracting Authority reserves the right to procure from the successful tenderer services consisting of the repetition of similar services entrusted to the successful tenderer in conformity with the terms of the original contract and as indicated in it, acting in accordance with Regulation 32(9) and (10). In addition, the Contracting reserves the right to procure additional services by the successful tenderer that have become necessary and were not included in the initial procurement, where a change of service provider (i) cannot be made for economic or technical reasons such as requirements of interchangeability or interoperability with existing equipment, services or installations procured under the initial procurement, or (ii) it would cause significant inconvenience or substantial duplication of costs for the contracting authority, provided that any increase in costs to the authority as a result on them does not exceed 50% of the value of the original contract, Furthermore, the Contracting Authority reserves the right to make changes to the contract to be concluded which are not "substantial" for the purposes of Regulation 72 of PCR2015, and where (i) the need for changes has been brought about by circumstances which a diligent contracting authority could not have foreseen; and (ii) the change does not alter the overall nature of the contract; and in so far that (iii) any increase in costs to the authority as a result does not exceed 50% of the value of the original contract.

IV.2.6 Minimum timeframe during which tenderer must maintain the tender. In this case it is 6 months, however 'this may be subject to extension'.
