Description

This Request for Information ('RFI') relates to an Audience Interactive Social Media Toolkit.

*

The BBC currently relies on IMI Social to capture, route, and curate audience contributions from SMS, social media, and WhatsApp, integrating them into BBC production workflows. This enables various on-air applications, such as reading SMS messages on the radio, playing WhatsApp voice notes, and rendering audience data for on-screen graphics. The platform processes millions of messages each month across radio, podcasts, news, and TV.

*

To ensure continuity, the BBC needs to procure a new web-based Social Audience Engagement Solution.

*

You can find further information in the RFI document which can be downloaded from the BBC's eSourcing portal via <https://bbc.bravosolution.co.uk>. Instructions on how to register on the eSourcing portal can be found in the 'Engagement' section of this notice.
