OUR STORY - MAKING LONDON HOME

Around two in every 100 Londoners live in a Notting Hill Genesis home. More than half are in general needs properties charged at social or affordable rent levels, but we also offer shared ownership, leasehold, market rent, supported and temporary housing, and commercial properties.

That tenure mix allows us to build on our proud legacy over almost six decades as an innovative and important player in London's housing story, and to maintain our determination to deliver homes that Londoners can afford, whatever their personal circumstances.

We are committed to working better together for our residents, providing safe, warm and comfortable homes where they can live their lives well.

Our focus is on the capital, where we provide services to households in almost 61,000 homes across every London borough. We have slightly more than 6,000 properties in areas around London, but plan to transfer those to better placed registered providers over the coming years. As for previous transfers, we will work closely with local stakeholders and residents to ensure the process is as smooth as possible.

Alongside improving existing homes and services, we continue to build new homes. In 2023/24, we plan to deliver 1,281 new homes, 80% of which will be affordable, ensuring we are playing our part in addressing the capital's housing shortage and enabling more people to truly make London home.

SERVICES AND LOTS

an existing Contract;

- where properties are transferred to another provider and properties/schemes are removed from an existing Contract

- if it is necessary to move properties/scheme to another provider.

The Contract terms provide NHG the right to add and remove properties/schemes to allow this flexibility.

NHG has provided details of the estimated value of each Contract in the SQ and Invitation to Tender but this value may change where properties/schemes are added or removed from a Contract and there is therefore no guaranteed minimum value / expenditure under each Contract.

Further information can be found in the SQ/ITT document

NHG shall be under no obligation to award a contract as a result of this procurement exercise.
