Scope

Description

This upcoming tender will seek a suitably qualified travel management provider to support the University's domestic and international travel requirements for staff and students. The contract will cover a full range of travel services, with the possibility to include booking of air, rail, and accommodation, with an emphasis on providing clear reporting, carbon tracking, and value for money. The successful supplier may also be required to integrate with internal systems, such as finance and approval processes, and will be expected to support UEA's sustainability and duty of care commitments.
