Description of options

HIE reserves the right, on giving reasonable written notice from time to time, to require changes to the Services (whether by way of the removal of Services, the addition of new Services, or increasing or decreasing the Services or specifying the order in which the Services are to be performed or the locations where the Services are to be provided). HIE shall not require any such change other than where it is permitted by Regulation 72 of the Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2015.

In accordance with Regulation 72(1)(a) of the Public Contracts (Scotland) Regulations 2015, HIE reserves the right to make changes to the volume, scope or location of the Services to be supplied under the Contract following a review of the Services by HIE, particularly with regard to demand and budgetary availability or where HIE's strategic focus changes as a result of changes in Scottish Government policy or as a result of a direction given to them by the Scottish Government. This may result in amendments to existing requirements under the Contracts.

Contract modifications may include (but are not limited to):

- Changes to building occupancy or activities which results in an increased or decreased waste management requirement.
- Changes in lease agreements or occupancy which lead to areas being permanently or temporarily vacant.
- Requests from occupiers or tenants to increase service provision, including provision of waste receptacles and/or frequency of uplifts.
- Changes to the waste streams required due to occupancy or activity changes, or tenant requests.
- HIE acquiring bins and not requiring bin rental.

- Changes to HIE's available budget to deliver these services.
