Scope

Description

The provision of services for the recycling and/or treatment of waste wood from Leicestershire County Council Recycling and Household Waste Sites (RHWS).

Please note the Council have a current contract that has scope to continue subject to planning permission. The incumbent service providers planning permission is due to expire in 2026, however they have started the process to formally extend their planning permission.

In the case that planning permission IS granted to the incumbent service provider, the Council will continue to use the existing contract and thus there will not be a new procurement.

In the event that the planning permission IS NOT granted to the incumbent service provider, the Council will procure a new contract.

The estimated contract dates are subject to change.
