Description

This procurement is likely to be awarded under a PCR Framework Agreement but a pipeline notice is being published for transparency purposes. Once a contract has been awarded under a PCR Framework Agreement, a Procurement Termination Notice will be published to remove this Pipeline Notice and notify the market of Contract Award.

The Procurement Description as follows:

The CPS will be undertaking work to remove the existing Management Information Systems (MIS) database and reroute the dataflows from our CMS system directly to the Data Platform.

In addition, CPS will be looking to harvest data from other systems such as those in HR, Finance and Security departments as well as implementing more detailed casework related data from CMS. CPS also expect to enhance the technical infrastructure with more sophisticated tools to unlock the power of AI to work with our data.
