II.1.4) Short description

This PIN is published inviting all suppliers interested to fill out a response in Appendix 1 Market Research Objectives and return by email to the address and deadline detailed below.

The information provided will be treated with strict confidentiality.

This is an information gathering exercise and a response does not guarantee an invitation to tender for any services which the Council may advertise, nor that the Council will procure any such services or accept any proposals offered. Conversely, not participating in the market testing exercise will not exclude any party from any future involvement in the procurement process.

The purpose of market testing is to understand what suppliers are providing with their solutions, their experience of delivering similar solutions, a way for the Council to clarify and understand solutions and to help draw up requirements that can be fulfilled by the market place should a tender be issued at a later stage.
