The Home Office is now combining a number of different schemes the VPRS and VCRS schemes and another scheme Gateway Protection Programme (which Home office directly contract with Horton) into one UK resettlement scheme. Home Office have said they will only deliver the new scheme with Local Authorities.

The provisions within our existing contract enables us to include support for Gateway Protection Programme clients. We have approval from Portfolio holder Cllr Alex Ross-Shaw and he is supportive of our current approach.

The Home Office have stated finances and terms of specification will remain the same as VPRS and VCRS. The number of beneficiaries will be 250-300 to take into account the GPP clients.
