II.1.4) Short description

This framework will allow Children's Social Care to procure the Case management as and when needed. At the heart of this implementation is a fundamental outcome: putting children and families at the heart of the design and supporting them in the most effective way. This is a revolution in case management, moving it from being an administrative tool to taking the role of an enabler of best practice within social work delivery.

Bi-borough Children's Services are also keen to collaborate and jointly design a new approach to case management this exercise will enable potential suppliers to co create the end solution with Bi borough and develop a unique and innovative product for the benefit of the market as whole.
