VI.3) Additional information

FCDO will host an EME event about the planned programme and the anticipated services required from interested parties. We would welcome those with experience in managing technical assistance projects in a similar context to those in ASEAN. At this stage, the aim of the EME is to introduce the broad objectives of the programme, outline some high principles for its design and management and discuss how the technical assistance could work operationally. FCDO will be keen to solicit the views of the market regarding the most effective means of delivering the programme objectives. FCDO would welcome the participation of both national and international organisations.

Non-participation in this event will not be considered in any future procurement. The purpose of this notice is to explore the market, inform the specifications and help us to decide on the best procurement route and strategy.

Further details concerning the event will be provided on the FCDO Jaggaer Portal in due course.

At the event, FCDO will present the programme and its proposed outputs as well as discussion on a set of key questions listed in the survey.

Please register for attendance for the EME via the guidance below, which is a separate requirement from registering interest on the FCDO Jaggaer portal.

How to register

The EME is expected to take place on the 27 September 2023 at 9:30 am UK. This will be a virtual event hosted on MS TEAMS dial-in facility.
