NHS Health Checks Community Outreach Service

NHS Health Checks are currently provided in Lancashire through 135 general practices and a third-party provider who delivers health checks across the county in community pharmacies, community settings, workplaces, and places of worship. Lancashire County Council Public Health are seeking to procure a new service which includes an integrated hybrid delivery model. This will promote working in a more collaborative way between the third-party provider and general practices.

Please see the tender documents for more information in relation to the Maximum Tender Price per year, incentive payments and price uplift.
