II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Support for citizens of any gender, aged 16 and above, single or part of a couple and may or may not have dependent children. This service comprises floating support and refuge provision for women, men and families experiencing housing related support needs linked to domestic abuse. All elements require the delivery of flexible, multi-disciplinary support, as required by the presenting individual needs.

All individuals supported will be resident in Denbighshire and identified as needing support to enable them to sustain or manage their accommodation independently to prevent homelessness. Support will be offered for a time-limited period, as per individual need including complex needs e.g. dual mental health needs.

Support will be strengths-based, person-centred and outcomes-focussed.

Services will comply with Welsh Government Housing Support Grant Programme.

The tender specification for this service may vary from the description above.
