II.1.4) Short description

Edinburgh Health and Social Care Partnership, (EHSCP), through the City of Edinburgh Council, would like to test the market for experienced providers to deliver Care Inspectorate registered day opportunities for older people within the Edinburgh City boundaries. The delivery model would require meeting the needs of individuals and respond to the local and national environment, which may include a blended approach model with a mix of centre based and one to one outreach provision.

Following the re-mobilisation from COVID-19 restrictions and the ever changing landscape for services, the model of delivery will be subject to ongoing development and review with the successful providers.
