II.1.4) Short description

Somerset has two Building Schools for Future, Private Finance Initiative schools with associated leisure facilities.

The current contract for the provision of leisure sports centre management services ends in October 2025. The location of the leisure facilities are Robert Blake School, Bridgwater and Chilton Trinity School, Bridgwater.

The Council wishes to engage with the market ahead of a procurement of a contract to understand the level of interest in such a contract and to receive any feedback regarding the procurement route. The new contract will run to the end of the PFI contract in September 2037.

Market engagement will be used to develop a procurement model which delivers commercial arrangements that permit genuine innovation and good relationships.

The Council is looking for a provider which can maximise social value, deliver a high quality, inclusive, and safe service at the lowest possible cost to the Council.

Please note Somerset Council uses the Proactis procurement portal. Please register at the following site if you are interested in this opportunity.
