II.1.4) Short description

Bristol City Council as a part of and on behalf of Bristol, North Somerset and South Gloucestershire (BNSSG) Councils intends to undertake a Most Suitable Provider process through the Provider Selection Regime protocol for the provision of Sexual and Reproductive Health Clinical Services. The commissioner/s have published this Prior Information Notice to support and encourage market engagement at a meeting on Thursday 26th September 2024.

The contract duration is expected to be 7 years with the potential to extend by up to 3 years. The value of the 7-year contract will be circa £30.8 million (this is still being finalised). The objective of this engagement is to socialise the work we have done to this point around the market in England, share the PSR Most Suitable Provider process detail, including requirements around response, timing and sequencing, along with our expected value match assessment process and contract agreement discussions (in line with PSR procedure). Following this we will be really happy to engage, discuss and answer any questions.

The event which is an in-person event is scheduled to take place at City Hall, College Green from 1.30pm through 3.30pm on 26th September 2024. We envisage this will also provide a unique opportunity for meeting and discussion with potential partners.
