Description

The Resourcing world at NRS has drastically changed over the past 24 months, we've gone from being an organisation that is winding down and reducing our workforce, to being in a position where there are so many new and exciting opportunities - not only for existing staff but also for individuals wanting to join the NRS family. The process of going from single (mainly internal) vacancies, to volume and external recruitment continues to be a massive challenge for our Resourcing Team. We are continuously working on process improvements to make the recruitment experience better for both our hiring managers and our candidates and have a number of live projects that we are working on in addition to filling vacancies. To be able to support our direct sourcing strategy, we need to continue to engage with the right jobs board to support with brand awareness and increase the quantity and quality of candidates applying for our NRS roles on the

Indeed offers a job 'sponsoring' approach that allows us to optimise our job postings to engage with specific candidates and ensure visibility of our adverts. Other jobs boards offer 'job slots' where we can advertise one role per slot. This is more easily manageable as each job slot is a fixed fee.
