II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Swansea Council is seeking to establish market options for the design, co-ordination and delivery of four (2 x 60s and 2 x 90s changeable) animations to focus on 'busting myths' for parents or carers in regards to ASD – Autism Spectrum Disorder.

Due to the nature of the funding, the campaign must be completed and live by March 31st 2024.

Swansea Council is committed to offering clear pathways for ASD by outlining the support, clear pathways and opportunities – clearly directing parents and carers to our one stop shop webpage to outline such pathways in Swansea.

A social media campaign will coincide with the communication campaign to support driving traffic to the website and the right place. The animations will be at the forefront of the integral campaign to reassure, support and direct the child/ learner to the right place.

At this stage, Swansea Council are seeking to determine the most appropriate approach to seek a company with experience who can outline the brief, work to the required timescale and best value.
