II.1.4) Short description

London Gatwick Airport Limited (GAL) has a forthcoming requirement to refresh its Design Framework Agreements. This encompasses multi-disciplinary services, civil and structural engineering, architectural, mechanical engineering, fire engineering and baggage design. GAL is seeking interested suppliers from across the market, typically involved in the design of construction projects in the Aviation sector.

Following GAL's early market engagement with the supply chain we have now released a PQQ document for completion by interested suppliers.

To participate in the selection process, Potential Providers are invited to complete the PQQ document. The information to be provided is intended to enable London Gatwick to evaluate the eligibility, economic and financial standing, and technical and professional ability of providers. Suitable candidates will be taken to the next stage of the process and invited to reply to the RFP.
