II.1.4) Short description

Kent County Council are undertaking a Public Health Service Transformation Programme to ensure services are impactful, cost-effective and robust for the future. The programme responds to a series of strategic developments, challenges and opportunities in the commissioning landscape, and will be underpinned by an evidenced-based review of all internal and external Public Health funded services and grants. This is an exciting opportunity to transform public health services and ensure that funding is spent where it can make the biggest impact.

To support this review we have developed the following survey to:

- Have a better understanding of community infant feeding support available in Kent
- Understand the market appetite for delivery of KCC commissioned services.

Access to the survey can be obtained by clicking the below link

<https://survey.kent.gov.uk/xj9xa1>

Any future opportunities to tender for KCC services will be advertised via the Kent Business Portal.
