II.1.4) Short description

This tender relates to support services for vulnerable adults and young people, it consists of two lots. A single contract will be awarded for each service lot. However, tenders will be welcomed from provider partnerships, consortiums or those involving sub-contracting, as well as from individual providers. The provider will be expected to mobilise ready for the new service to commence delivery on the dates specified below. The council is interested in bids from organisations with substantial knowledge and experience of providing the relevant support service for homeless or potentially homeless vulnerable individuals who may be care experienced young people and people who may have multiple complex vulnerabilities. Strong bids will also demonstrate proficiency and experience of working in an open, transparent and collaborative way across whole systems. Whilst the accommodation based and floating support services are separate tender Lots they could be operated by a single provider or consortium and the tender is constructed to allow bids for either or all Lots.
