Under the terms of this contract the successful supplier(s) will be required to deliver Community Benefits in support of the authority's economic and social objectives. Accordingly, contract performance conditions may relate in particular to social and environmental considerations. The Community Benefits included in this contract are:

The Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015 requires us to consider more widely the economic, environmental, social and cultural well-being benefits of service procurement. For example, how the Service itself will contribute to local employment and how employment and volunteering opportunities will be made available to people to help them gain experience and confidence.

Please set out your approach to the delivery of Community Well-being Benefits and explain how, when delivering the service, you will address the requirements of the Service Specification Part 6 Community Well-being Benefits, paying particular attention to:

Local training and employment

Green and sustainable

Partners in community

(WA Ref:144281)

The buyer considers that this contract is suitable for consortia.
