II.2.4) Description of the procurement

Royal Holloway and Bedford New College (“the College”) is undertaking a procurement competition based on the Competitive Dialogue (CD) Procedure to select one partner.

The selected partner will be required to:

(a) Analyze the College’s existing data estate to provide an enterprise approach to delivering better college reporting and learner analytics.

- (b) Provide a cloud based solution which aggregates data from multiple sources as well as holding historic data.
- (c) Provide and Extract, Transform and Load (ETL) tool.
- (d) Consolidate existing data visualization tools to provide the most effecting reporting tool that provides best value while complements the College's IT roadmap.
- (e) Implement best practice data governance.
- (f) Provide support for solutions implemented.

The procurement will comprise an initial selection stage, following which a shortlist of a minimum of three bidders will then be invited to participate in a dialogue phase, culminating in the submission of final tenders. The dialogue phase will involve a series of dialogue sessions followed by an invitation to submit a draft bid based on the information from the session. Another session with each bidder will follow the draft submission, before an invitation to submit final tenders, which will then be evaluated.
