Scope

Description

The Corporate Officer of the House of Commons requires a supplier to provide a sophisticated media and social media monitoring tool to be used by both the House of Commons Digital and Media Relations teams, offering a joined-up approach to reporting for both teams, with high quality monitoring of the media and digital landscape. The House of Commons Communications Office manages communications on behalf of the House of Commons and UK Parliament. It includes, amongst others, a media relations team and a digital communications team, and leads on most bicameral communications (including emergency incident and business continuity communications) It helps improve access to, and understanding of, the work of the House of Commons and the UK Parliament. It also works to support ceremonial and other high-profile events, as well as promoting Parliament's significance as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Tender documentation and responses must be submitted via the Atamis portal. To register, please use the following link: <https://atamis-ukparliament.my.site.com/s/Welcome>.
