II.1.4) Short description

Cambridge City Council (CCC) is seeking to explore and understand the marketplace and are inviting all potential suppliers to attend this event. The desired outcome of this soft market testing is to gain insight into the market, gauge the level of interest from potential providers and gather feedback on the feasibility of the Council's proposals ahead of undertaking a procurement (or procurements) to secure a service provider (or providers).

Cambridge City Council wishes to conduct preliminary market consultations with interested parties in relation to five restaurant/café facilities at several locations across several council owned assets in the city.

CCC current team of project leads for each of the facilities will be in attendance and will be able to answer any specific questions around the delivery requirements.

If you are interested in attending this event, please notify Cambridge City Council via the portal by 5pm on Sunday 28th November 2021.
