Text

SEP-II will support girls and boys through evidence-based and data-driven education programming. It will achieve this by focusing on four key areas: (i) Strengthening local education systems so that they are accountable, effective, and responsive (ii) Enhancing school level capacity to deliver inclusive, gender responsive and quality learning, (iii) Developing effective systems to support inclusion, mental health & child protection, and (iv) Generating more predictable financing for sector implementation, including teacher salaries. The awarded Supplier will deliver activities in each pillar (broadly defined in the Terms of Reference) to support the overall outcome.
