Scope

Reference

BT284

Description

Lilestone Street Community Hub and potentially the former Brunel Family Centre will be new Community Hubs in the north of the borough. WCC require a supplier who will work with the Council and the community to co-create, finish and complete the fit out of both spaces Our ambition is that this creates a welcoming, inclusive and creative space, encouraging participation, providing support and empowering communities with knowledge and skills. Essential services and activities will in the future be delivered by an external operator in partnership with other local organisations.
