II.1.4) Short description

North Northampton Council (NNC) will procure a two-year pilot project working with providers to develop and deliver parenting support models in community settings.

The Council is setting up a Framework Agreement for the provision of Early Parenting and Child-Parent Relationship Pilot Services.

This Framework Agreement is for two (2) years.

Lot 1: Parenting Support

Lot 2: Perinatal Mental Health and Parent-Infant Relationships

The Early Parenting and Child-Parent Relationship Pilot (The Pilot) will be commissioned as two lots. The Pilot will take a population-based approach offering universal parenting support and targeted interventions to support families in need, e.g., those with mild-moderate mental health issues and parent-infant relationship difficulties.

The Pilot will provide early parenting and child-parent relationship support for mothers, fathers, and co-parents with children under two years old.

The Pilot will provide support through evidence-based parenting programmes, antenatal classes, targeted parent-infant interventions, and peer support.
