II.1.4) Short description

The Environment Agency is currently seeking the provision for the EA Learning Experience / Management System Solution. The current externally hosted Learning Content Management System (LCMS) is known internally as Learning Zone. This is a commercially available off the shelf system (COTS), which has been customised by the Environment Agency.

Learning Zone is a Totara based application that provides access to over 2500 face to face and virtual learning events per year, over 500 elearning and technology based learning products for the 11200 employees within the EA. In addition, learning is provided for circa 6000, employees with an incident Management (IM) role, responsible for responding to local and major incidents as Category 1 responders.
