The Probation Services Practitioner Level 3 Apprenticeship standard is currently being refreshed through a trailblazer group for potential delivery in Summer/Autumn 2024. The delivery would be across His Majesty's Prison and Probation Service (HMPPS), specifically for Probation Service Officers (or similar job title) across England and Wales.

The MoJ is seeking expressions of interests (EOIs) from providers and End Point Assessment Organisations who would be interested in joining the trailblazer to share the delivery and funding requirements. Suppliers would need to meet the following criteria:

- Have experience in delivering apprenticeship standards or End Point Assessments (EPAs)
- Have experience of working in a justice sector and familiar with the work of the Probation Service
- Support the development of the apprenticeship standard/EPA process and contribute to the funding band arrangements from October 2023 until approval from IfATE of the standard/EPA (anticipated February 2024).
