II.1.4) Short description

1.1. The Moray Council wishes to put in place an Education for All (Alternative Curriculum) Flexible Framework. This PIN will remain continuously open.

The Flexible Framework covers a wide ranging set of Alternative Activities including (but not limited to):

- i) Social inclusion activities
- ii) Day opportunities
- iii) Learning opportunities

The resultant list of Framework Providers will inform a Community Asset Map for MC Services to access these services.

The services will support a Young Person to achieve the best possible quality of life, in terms of their personal aspirations, choices and abilities. Services will be flexible and adaptable to changes in a Young Person's assessed need or personal choice. A Young Person and/or their parents or carer should be fully involved in developing and shaping the outcomes expected throughout the duration of their support.

The MC will consider each young person referred to the Framework to assess "best fit" to what the framework can offer based on the required outcomes. Working with the chosen

Provider the Agreement will be developed that will outline the final requirements
