Section VI. Complementary information

VI.3) Additional information

Work has commenced in the development of procurement strategy options for the Framework. Scottish Procurement recognises the value of suppliers and industry bodies having the opportunity to contribute to this process on a non-competitive, non-judgemental basis.

The Scottish Procurement ICT Products team would like to engage with the market and collate supplier views on the Framework structure, scope and commercial model. To assist with this, Scottish Procurement has drafted a Request for Information (RfI) and suppliers and other interested parties are encouraged to read, complete and return the RfI attached to this notice and provide their views/comments to Dawn Swan (dawn.swan@gov.scot) by midday on Monday 7th October 2024.

Following receipt of the completed RfI, Scottish Procurement may engage directly with interested suppliers to obtain further market intelligence. Scottish Government and the Scottish Ministers shall have no liability for any costs, however incurred, by those attending any information days, attendance at meetings or involvement in the proposed procurement process.
