The NHS Volunteer Responder Service was created as part of the Emergency Response to Covid. We have secured a national body of volunteer responders that remain able to support the NHS through a suite of micro volunteering roles/tasks.

The intention is now to retain and grow this cohort into a refreshed service supporting health and potentially adult social care in the future alongside the ability to deploy them through a digital platform and application.

This contract is awarded by NHS England with the potential for Department of Health and Social Care to become joint commissioner and therefore a party to the contract should it be NHS England and the Department of Health and Social Care determine that the scheme will expand to include adult social care throughout during the contract period
