Description

The British Embassy in Havana, Cuba were approved funds for a non-armoured vehicle for the Embassy fleet. Post has been allocated a capital budget of £40,000 for this purchase. The order needs to be placed, with the Purchase Order raised, before the end of June.

As part of the rolling replacement plan, the British Embassy in Havana sought to appoint a supplier that could provide a non-armoured vehicle for the Embassy fleet. The requirements

Post looked at were overall cost, client/customer service, response time, delivery dates, quality of information provided by supplier, and suitability/compatibility in overall terms.
