II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Council recognises the preventative value of services delivered through Voluntary Organisations for people in Slough. We also recognise the need to provide excellent infrastructure and capacity building services to facilitate development – not just for existing groups but for those wishing to set up and make a difference in their community. This includes the recruitment and retention of trained volunteers to support both ongoing activities, as well as being able to respond to new need in a responsive and supported way. We will be shortly seeking tenders from suitably experienced providers to facilitate the further development of local voluntary and community groups in Slough. The provider will work collaboratively with Slough's front line services, residents and community leaders to develop and promote a market of voluntary organisations and cohort of volunteers that will support the needs of the area. The provisional scope includes:

- The development of a universally accessible Directory of Services
- The development of an up-to-date and well-promoted volunteer matching service
- Oversight and administration of the Slough Community fund
- Co-location of staff within statutory services to prevent people entering services unnecessarily

II.2.14) Additional information

The provisional scope of voluntary services includes but is not limited to: Young carer's support
Youth services
Vulnerable families support
Isolation and loneliness reduction
Transport
Immigration and Asylum seeking.
Supporting Social Care services.
