Engagement

Engagement deadline

5 June 2025

Engagement process description

Whittington Health NHS Trust confirms that it has undertaken pre-market engagement in relation to the future procurement of retail and café services at Whittington Hospital.

This engagement was conducted in accordance with Section 17 of the Procurement Act 2023, with the aim of informing the Trust's procurement strategy, service model design, and commercial approach. The exercise was designed to ensure that the Trust has a full understanding of market capability, innovation, sustainability opportunities, and potential commercial structures before commencing any formal procurement.

The engagement involved outreach via LinkedIn and direct conversations with a diverse group of providers, including but not limited to:

- Compass Group
- WSH Group
- Thomas Franks
- Fika Catering
- A local SME store operator
- Souter
- Elior
- Regular Cafes
- Existing incumbent providers

The Trust confirms that the purpose of this engagement was informative only, and no supplier was given an unfair advantage in any forthcoming procurement process. Any procurement opportunity will be advertised transparently and in accordance with statutory requirements.
