Description

Provide market insight on the US livestock market. The market is strategically important due to the long term potential it holds for the UK. Having local expertise, is critical to AHDB's work in providing up to date insight to support our understanding the current market dynamic, this includes insight on government and industry body intelligence. In the current political climate, timely information is of the essence and key to decision our making in relation to the US market. Such information helps inform our work and provide accurate insight to levy payers, both those exporting and others looking at the potential of the market.
