Competency Group F – BIA/AMCP Conversion Course

Overall Aim: Using the learning outcomes identified for competency Group F to develop and deliver an engaging and impactful bi-lingual conversion course for Best Interest Assessors to become an AMCP that can be delivered face to face.

The supplier would present a project plan and costs that would cover the following as a minimum:

- Develop a programme of learning that meets identified learning outcomes.
- Test content of proposed programme with steering group and others as necessary
- Finalise programme taking account of feedback at testing stage
- Develop a programme of delivery to be completed prior to the launch date of the LPS including plans for administration, delivery and evaluation
- Deliver programme of learning. This could be via a number of preferred suppliers but the cost of delivery should be included in the bid.
- Provide contingency plans for additional delivery as an optional costed model in the event that further “mop up” events are required. This can be as simple as a unit cost for each additional learning event that can be commissioned on a needs basis.
