II.1.4) Short description

Kent County Council currently commissions a range of Therapies for Children and Young People across SEN, Virtual Schools Kent (VSK) and Adoption Partnership South East. There is an interdependency between the services, therefore the commissioning and procurement processes are to be aligned. The underpinning themes for all services are to deliver; seamless, joined up pathways for users of services and ease of access. An improved flexibility of approach and the ability to innovate, develop and evolve services during the contract term and efficient performance monitoring to inform future service development.

The contract will be awarded to multiple providers following an Evaluation of the Mandatory Selection Questionnaire – there will be a continuously published Prior Information Notice, available via the Kent Business Portal. Interested suppliers are hereby invited to express their interest in this tender opportunity and submit their completed Mandatory Selection Questions by the date specified.
