II.2.4) Description of the procurement

How DfE will engage with the market?

Following the two previous market engagement events in April and May 2022, DfE is holding a final virtual market engagement event regarding the DPS.

Virtual Market Engagement Event– Monday 14th November 2022, 11am – 12pm

DfE invites any suppliers whose service offering potentially matches DfE's requirements for Skills Bootcamps to attend the Virtual Market Engagement Event, which seeks to achieve the following outcomes :

1. To explain the DfE Dynamic Purchasing System for Skills Bootcamps
2. Prepare suppliers for the launch of the DfE Dynamic Purchasing System for Skills Bootcamps
3. Invite suppliers' questions

How to join the virtual market engagement event:

Suppliers are invited to attend a virtual market engagement event on Monday 14th November 2022 from 11AM-12PM.

To book your attendance (max. two per organisation), please use the below link to register via Microsoft Teams:

Following the virtual market engagement event, suppliers are invited to complete a questionnaire. This questionnaire will offer the opportunity to ask any further questions on the Skills Bootcamps DPS. All subsequent questions and answers will be circulated to attendees and may be used in further market engagement activities.

To access the follow-up supplier questionnaire, please use the below link:

<https://forms.office.com/r/290NL4nH4U>

Please note that the follow-up questionnaire will become active, following the event on 14th November 2022.

The event will be delivered via Microsoft Teams and recordings will be made available for those unable to attend.

We will be looking to issue a draft Dynamic Purchasing Agreement (DPA) ahead of the session through the Jaggaer portal. The DPA is the document that suppliers will agree to as part of the DPS application and sign if they wish to onboard. There will be an opportunity to ask clarification questions during the Q&A session and through a questionnaire issued at the event.
