II.1.4) Short description

The Council has identified the following objectives which will underpin the Service:

- individuals who are homeless or in immediate risk of becoming homeless will have access to an 'independent', safe and supportive day time facility where their immediate housing and health and wellbeing needs can be assessed and appropriate action taken to start to address these
- the support provided will be short term and based on assessed needs. Individuals will have time bound goals and supported to achieve their desired outcomes.
- the support provided will complement and not duplicate other Council funded Housing Related Support and Health and Wellbeing services
- the support provided will be impartial, non-judgemental, flexible and person-centred and will promote and support recovery

1.2 Specifically, the Service will ensure that:

- where necessary, Service Users will be supported to access support that addresses their immediate emergency accommodation needs
- where necessary, Service Users will be provided with support that addresses their immediate health and wellbeing needs or provides access to support that addresses their immediate health and wellbeing needs
