II.1.4) Short description

Lincolnshire County Council requires the supply of a high quality Best Start Lincolnshire Service(s), broken down as two lots. Lot One: Best Start Lincolnshire: Early Years and Family Service and Lot Two: Best Start Lincolnshire: Inclusion Service for ethnic minority children in their early years and their families from 1st April 2023.

Both Best Start Lincolnshire services are an integral part of the Council's offer to Lincolnshire children in their early years. Both services shall also work as part of an integrated early years team alongside professionals within the Council's wider early years services and alongside each other. This shall also include partnership working with other relevant health and commissioned early years services

II.2.4) Description of the procurement

The Service shall provide high-quality educational and fun sessions for children in their early years and their families to access. These sessions will support child development, early learning, positive health outcomes and positive parenting, including emotional literacy. Delivery shall be from the Council's 48 children's centres (plus two non-designated sites) and community-based outreach venues (including outdoor locations).

The Service shall offer a core menu of fully inclusive universal early education sessions that shall be available across the county. Sessions must empower parents/carers to be their child's first educator, to provide children with a healthy lifestyle and support them to understand and normalise their child's emotions and behaviours at key developmental stages.

The Service shall also offer more targeted sessions tailored to meet the needs of local communities. The planning of which sessions will be run in which area will be coordinated and agreed with the Customer.
